

Press release Stockholm, February 23, 2016

Marcus Lindqvist to leave Dustin Group

Marcus Lindqvist, Head of B2B Sweden and Products, will leave Dustin Group for a position as CEO of Qliro Group.

The process to find a successor has been initiated and Marcus will remain in his current position during his six-month notice period.

- Marcus has with commitment and great drive helped to develop and strengthen Dustin's position in the Swedish market. I would like to extend my many thanks to Marcus for his dedication and contribution and wish him every success in his new role, says Georgi Ganev, President and CEO of Dustin.

Marcus Lindqvist was employed by Dustin in 2012.

For further information, please contact:

Niklas Alm, Head of Investor Relations: niklas.alm@dustin.se, +46 708 24 40 88

This information is such that Dustin Group AB (publ) is required to disclose in accordance with the Swedish Financial Instruments Trading Act and/or the Swedish Securities Market Act. The information was submitted for publication at 08:03 CET on February 23, 2016.

About Dustin

Dustin is one of the leading Nordic resellers of IT products and additional services to companies, the public sector and private individuals. Having its core business within e-commerce, Dustin functions as a bridge between the manufacturer's large selection and the customer's needs where Dustin's employees help customers find the right solution for their needs.

Dustin is a one-stop-shop that offers approximately 200,000 products with associated services, functions and solutions. The operation is conducted in Sweden, Denmark, Norway and Finland.

Dustin has more than 900 employees. Sales during the 2014/15 financial year amounted to approximately SEK 7.9 billion. More than 90 per cent of Dustin's income derives from the corporate market with a focus on small and medium companies. Dustin is listed on Nasdaq Stockholm since 2015 and has its head office in Nacka in Stockholm.