Judgement in a dispute between Dustin and Sør-Trøndelag Fylkeskommune et al

Sør-Trøndelag tingrett in Norway has today communicated a verdict in a dispute between Dustin and Sør-Trøndelag Fylkeskommune et al. The verdict, that concerns the interpretation of a contract signed in 2011, is in all material respects in favour of the counterpart. Dustin does not share the court's ruling in the verdict and intends to appeal.

If the verdict stands it will have a negative impact of approximately 22.5 MSEK, 5.7 MSEK of that total has been previously reserved.

A full reservation for repayment etc. will be reported as an item affecting comparability during the third quarter 2016/17. Dustin has previously only made a limited reservation based on a legal analysis by the company and its external legal advisors.
