

Press release Stockholm, November 28, 2017

Change in Dustin's group management team

Jens Haviken, VP Services & Solutions, has informed of his intention to leave his position at Dustin in order to take on the position as CEO of Techstep. He will remain in his position at Dustin during his six-months notice period.

The search process for his successor will be initiated immediately.

- Jens has created a foundation for Dustin's continued development within the services and solutions area. Both through building a strong organisation, developing our own offering and expanding through acquisitions. I want to thank Jens for contributing to Dustin being well positioned to continue to develop within services and solutions, said Georgi Ganey, CEO of Dustin.

Jens Haviken has been with Dustin since 2013.

About Dustin

Dustin is one of the leading Nordic resellers of IT products with associated services to companies, the public sector and private individuals. With its core business in e-commerce, Dustin functions as a bridge between the manufacturer's wide-ranging offerings and customer requirements, in which Dustin's employees support customers in finding the appropriate solution for them.

Dustin is a one-stop-shop that offers some 250,000 products with associated services, features and solutions. Operations are conducted in Sweden, Denmark, Norway and Finland.

The company has approximately 1 000 employees. Sales during the 2016/17 financial year amounted to approximately SEK 9.3 billion. About 90 per cent of Dustin's income derives from the corporate market with a focus on small and medium-sized companies. Dustin Group has been listed on Nasdaq Stockholm since 2015 and has its head office in Nacka, Stockholm.
