Dustin receives award decision for framework agreement with Danish government, municipalities and regions

Dustin has won the award decision for a new framework agreement via the Danish Staten og Kommunernes Indkøbsservice (SKI). The annual value is estimated at approximately 500 million DKK.

The agreement covers computers and accessories for the Danish government, municipalities and regions and extends over a two-year period with an option for a two-year extension. The contract period start in September 2018.

- We are very happy to have won one of the larger Danish frame agreements. It proves our strength to be able to deliver a wide assortment and reliable delivery capabilities at a high quality, says Thomas Ekman, CEO of Dustin.

The tender can be subject to appeal within ten days of the award decision.
