

Press release Stockholm, February 2, 2023

Johan Karlsson new president and CEO of Dustin

Johan Karlsson has been appointed new president and CEO of Dustin. He has been CFO at Dustin since 2009 and takes up his new role on April 3, 2023. Johan succeeds Thomas Ekman who takes over as the new CEO of Axel Johnson, as previously announced.

- Johan has extensive experience and solid knowledge about Dustin and the market the company operates on. He has taken a large part in developing Dustin's strategy and with his strong leadership is the right person to, with continuity, continue leading the company forward, says Mia Brunell Livfors, Chair of Dustin.
- I look forward to, together with all the fantastic employees at Dustin, continuing to deliver on our strategy and developing the company to further strengthen our position in the market. The combination of the internal competence and the underlying market trends gives us the right conditions for long-term profitable growth, says Johan Karlsson incoming CEO of Dustin.
- I am very happy that Johan, with his strong commercial focus, curiosity and knowledge of the company is the one who, together with all employees, continues to develop Dustin, says Thomas Ekman CEO of Dustin.

The recruitment for a new CFO will start immediately.
