

Press release, May 31, 2023

Jenny Ring new EVP People, Culture & Sustainability

Jenny Ring has been appointed new EVP People, Culture & Sustainability. She assumes her new role and becomes a member of the group management team on June 1st, 2023.

Today, Jenny is responsible for Customer Fulfilment at Dustin and has held several leadership roles within Dustin since 2015. Before joining Dustin she was sales director at GE Money Bank.

- Jenny has extensive experience in leading complex, multinational organisations and has a strong competence within leadership combined with extensive knowledge of our business. That is why I am very happy that Jenny is now taking over responsibility for People, Culture and Sustainability as we continue to develop Dustin in all our markets, says Johan Karlsson, President and CEO of Dustin.
- The people and our strong culture are important success factors for Dustin's growth. I look forward to building on my previous experiences to, together with the team, continue to develop the work within People, Culture and Sustainability to contribute to Dustin's continued journey, says Jenny Ring.

Jenny Ring succeeds Martin Lindecrantz, who previously announced he is leaving the company.

For additional information, please contact:

Eva Ernfors, Head of Communication: eva.ernfors@dustin.se, +46 70 258 62 94

About Dustin

Dustin is a leading online based IT partner in the Nordics and the Benelux. We help our customers to stay in the forefront by providing them with the right IT solution for their needs.

We offer approximately 280,000 products with related services to companies, the public sector and private individuals. Sales for the financial year 2021/22 amounted to approximately SEK 23.6 billion and more than 90 per cent of the revenues came from the corporate market.

Dustin has approximately 2,500 employees and has been listed on Nasdaq Stockholm since 2015 with headquarters in Nacka Strand just outside central Stockholm.