Change in Dustin's group management team

Alexandra Frst has announced that she is leaving her position as COO. She will stay at Dustin until a replacement has been recruited or until March 2025 the latest.

The recruitment of a replacement will begin immediately.

- With her leadership and commitment, Alexandra has been very important for the successful integration of the operations in Benelux and the Nordics and for building our common culture. I want to thank her for her contribution to Dustin and wish her great success in the future, says Johan Karlsson, president and CEO of Dustin.
